

Chili House celebrates 20th anniversary

AMMAN — In celebrating its 20th anniversary in Jordan, Chili House provided a 50 per cent discount on all its meals last Friday and performed a firework show. Chili House was first established in 1985 and in September 2004 built a new branch with the first PLAYLAND for kids at the Royal Automobile Club Circle. Last October, Chili

House launched its delivery service in Jordan and licensed a branch in Ramallah. In 2005, Chili House will also be licensing four new branches in Syria, two in Damascus and two in Aleppo. Currently Chili House is engaged in negotiations for the licensing of branches for the GCC regions. Chili House will soon be adding low fat menu items as well as low carbohydrate dishes.
